

When the professional and personal come together

Do you love your job? We do, but like most people, the reason we work is to support our families. When the professional and personal come together, that's the sweet spot, right?

We know that juggling work and family life can be a challenge and your time is valuable. On our brand new Facebook page, we hope to post things that will matter to you. Please LIKE our page!

Mandy's daughter, Marin, tests the comfort of seating at her grandfather's local library, the St. Johnsbury Athenaeum in St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

Library visits are always part of Flynn family vacations!

After we finished the installation at Cincinnati's renovated Music Hall, Lisa's daughter Maddie enjoyed the Grand Opening.

Mandy's son Liam often helps set up for library fairs and sometimes stays to greet visitors.

Sue's son Dan hard at work making spaces more functional and beautiful.

Mary's granddaughter Amelia had some color suggestions for the Henry County Public Library project.
